

- MB202 BIRDING IN GARIBALDI PASS -

"Discover the Bird Paradise at Paso Garibaldi in Tierra del Fuego". Are you a bird and nature enthusiast? Then, we invite you to an unforgettable experience at the magical Paso Garibaldi in Tierra del Fuego, where the natural beauty and bird diversity will leave you breathless.

Starting from the city of Ushuaia, our journey will take you along the majestic National Route Number 3, surrounded by mountain ranges, hanging glacier valleys, peat bogs, and forests of Lengas, Ñires, and Coihues. This fairy-tale landscape provides the perfect backdrop for your adventure.

In Search of the White-bellied Seedsnipe. At 430 meters above sea level, we begin our hike towards the vegetation limit, at approximately 600 meters above sea level. Here, in the heart of the high Andean nature, you'll encounter the elusive White-bellied Seedsnipe, but that's just the beginning.

Birds: Imperial Cormorant, Kelp Goose, Upland Goose, Crested Duck, Flying Steamer Duck, Crested Duck, White throated Caracara, Flying Steamer Duck, Chimango Caracara, Magellanic Oystercatcher, Dolphin Gull, South American Tern, Dark-faced Ground Tyrant, Ochre-naped Ground Tyrant, Bar-winged Cinclodes, Austral Thrush, Patagonian Sierra Finch, Yellow-bridled Finch, etc.

Our adventure lasts for 8 hours. During this time, you'll immerse yourself in birdwatching, absorb the richness of the high Andean flora and fauna, and enjoy a packed meal that will give you the energy to explore every corner of this paradise.

Upon returning, we will visit the Ushuaia landfill, an educational experience about waste management and environmental conservation.

Get ready for a once-in-a-lifetime experience in one of the most dazzling destinations for birdwatchers. Don't miss the opportunity to discover the magic of Paso Garibaldi and its winged treasures. Book your adventure today and immerse yourself in the world of birds in Tierra del Fuego!"
