CITY TOUR: Some of the points of interest that will be seen include the houses of the low and high Mission, the "sledge houses" and the first concrete buildings in town, the centennial monument and the museum of the End of the World.

Of interest is also the prison, called the relapsing jail, for it held second offenders that were sent to this inhospitable place.

A highlight here is the viewpoint from Hotel Las Hayas, where the entire town can be seen at the base of the hills.

Several birds can be found just around town, most notably along the shores of the Beagle Channel, including the Kelp Goose, Fuegian Steamer Duck, Dolphin Gull, South American Tern, and even seabirds like Common Giant Petrel and Black-browed Albatross.

The Tour has a total duration between 5 to 5,30 hours. It can be adapted to the passenger's hourly requirements.
